

HOW IT WORKS

1 In a healthy eye images are focused on the macula

2 Operation replaces real lens with two artificial lenses, one in front and one behind the iris

3 These direct images away from the diseased macula to a healthy part of the retina

Macula

Retina

Iris

4 Information then sent to brain via the optic nerve

